Ref: Delphi Corporation Bankruptcy

Sir:

I am the wife of a Delphi retiree and feel I must write in regard to Delphi's proposed removal of retiree benefits.

The benefits in question were given by Delphi as an incentive to take early retirement. These assurances were the only reason many stopped working before their retirement age. To remove them will be a hardship for many of us.

Delphi asserts that the removal of retiree benefits will help save their company. The little they save here will hardly be the salvation they claim.

My husband and others gave the Corp. many years of loyal and sincere service during their employment with a promise of a comfortable retirement. It is truly immoral that the Corp. now wants to renege on their promises and make our retirement years a genuine hardship. It appears that the Corp. feels NO loyalty to those who worked for them so long.

I ask that you set aside the unconscionable request from Delphi and make them keep their promises and fulfill the responsibility they owe to these people who worked long and hard for them.

Sincerely
